Rolling home [bassen], rolling home [tenoren], 2x
rolling home across the sea.

Rolling home to dear old England,
rolling home dear land to thee.

1. Call all hands to man the capstan.
See the cable run down clear.
Heave away and with a will, boys.
For old England we will steer.
And we'll sing in joyful chorus
in the watches of the night.
And we'll sight the shores of England
when the grey dawn brings the light.

2. Up aloft amid the rigging
blows the loud exulting gale.
Like a bird's wide out-stretched pinions,
spread on high each swelling sail.
And the wild waves left behind us
seem to murmur as they flow.
There are loving hearts that wait you
in the land to which you go.

3. Now farewell Australian daughters
we shall leave your fruitful shores.
We shall soon cross deep bleu waters
t'see our home and friends once more.
We shall sing back songs and shanties
say goodbye to all friends here.
We shall soon trip our anchor
and for England we shall steer.
